

Scotiabank
CENTRE

GUEST POLICIES

The following conditions, policies and procedures are in place to help and ensure you enjoy a safe and memorable experience at Scotiabank Centre.

Code of Conduct

Scotiabank Centre is committed to providing a safe, welcoming, and enjoyable event experience for fans. Any behaviour that is considered to be threatening, violent, inappropriate or negatively impacting any guest or staff member will be handled immediately by our team. This may include being asked to leave the venue for the remainder of the event.

We are committed to creating an environment of safety and inclusivity aligned with our fan experience vision and the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act. For a full overview of our Code of Conduct, click here.

Accessibility

Dedicated accessible seating is available for purchase at Ticketmaster.ca. Guests who require accessible seating, but did not purchase tickets in an accessible area, will be accommodated to the best of our ability.

Guests of Premium Seating who require accessibility assistance should speak with their host or sales representative.

The recommended drop off entrance is Gate B on the corner of Brunswick/Duke Streets. Gate D and Premium Seating entrances are also accessible. For accessibility requests or questions while at Scotiabank Centre, use the text to assist line 902-441-5696 or for questions in advance of arrival email info@scotiabank-centre.com.

Alcohol Management

As the licensee, Scotiabank Centre is committed to the responsible sale and service of alcohol and complies with the regulations of the Nova Scotia Alcohol and Gaming Division (AGD) and the Liquor Control Act. It is Scotiabank Centre's policy to serve alcoholic beverages in a professional manner which is intended to promote responsible consumption so that we can deliver a safe and enjoyable event for all of our guests.

The legal age for alcohol consumption in the Province of Nova Scotia is 19 years of age. For each alcohol purchase, any customer who appears to be age 40 or under is required to show valid, government-issued photo ID, which proves that they are of the legal age for consumption. Alcohol will not be sold without valid ID. Scotiabank Centre reserves the right to refuse alcohol service to any patron at any time.

Outside alcoholic beverages are prohibited. Guests attempting to bring alcohol into the venue will be denied entry.

Alcohol service closing times vary based on the event and at staff discretion. Alcohol is not served at family shows.

Assistance

Have a question or need assistance during an event? You can reach us by using our text-to-assist line at 902-441-5696 or by speaking to an event attendant.

ATM

There are three ATM's located in Scotiabank Centre. They are located on the East and West concourses. A third ATM is located next to the Box Office at the Carmichael/Grafton Street entrance (Gate D).

Bags

Scotiabank Centre's Bag Policy does not permit bags larger than 14" high x 14" long x 6" high to be brought into the venue. Special considerations will always be made for guests with special medical needs and people with others in their care (ie. baby bags). All bags are subject to search.

Bag restrictions may change based on the event and no bag check is available on site.

Box Office

Ticketmaster is the official ticket seller of Scotiabank Centre. The box office is located on the Gate C and D entrance level of Scotiabank Centre off Duke and Carmichael Streets.

Customer support phone line regular open hours are 10am-2pm Monday to Friday but may be extended earlier or later depending on event days and onsales.

Current weekly hours can be confirmed by calling as they are subject to change. Phone 902-451-1221 or Canada toll-free 1-877-451-1221.

Box Office windows are open on event days a minimum of 90 minutes prior to the event (depending on event start time) and close shortly after the event begins (varies by event).

Tickets for all Scotiabank Centre events are available for purchase through www.ticketmaster.ca.

Unauthorized Ticket Re-Sellers

Ticketmaster is the official ticket seller of Scotiabank Centre. No other providers or websites are recognized ticket agents of Scotiabank Centre. We strongly urge all guests to purchase tickets through Ticketmaster, and not to patronize ticket brokers and unauthorized ticket re-sellers who may sell tickets that are not valid.

Resale of tickets is not permitted on Scotiabank Centre premises.

Bus Parking

The recommended drop-off location is on Brunswick Street. Access-a-bus location is on Brunswick Street, near Gate B. Buses cannot remain in this space after drop-off.

Cameras

Each event has its own individual restrictions on photography and videography, at the promoter's direction. Typically, the use of flash photography and professional equipment – video, audio or digital recording – is not permitted.

Children – Tickets

For most shows, children under the age of two are admitted free of charge and must sit on the lap of an adult. This policy may vary by event; please inquire at the time of ticket purchase.

Concessions

All food stands and kiosks are operated by our concessions partner, Sodexo Live!. All concessions are now cashless, a variety of payment types are accepted including all major credit cards, debit, Apple Pay, Google Wallet, Samsung Pay and more!

Concession stands and kiosks are located on the East and West Concourse providing a variety of food and beverage selections.

Outside food and beverage is not permitted.
